EAT AMERICAN STYLE

Task: write a menu for the restaurant of your choice (PE)

Final Task: dialogue at the restaurant (POI)

Diners are typical American restaurants. The first diners were train wagons converted into cheap restaurants. That's why they are so long, with a long service counter with stools and very small booths. In diners waiters or waitresses serve typical English food such as hamburgers, French Fries, club sandwiches, harsh brown, deep fried chicken, coleslaw and desserts such as pecan pie, cheesecake or ice creams. Customers come here to have a good time with their friends or family. You can eat breakfast, lunch or dinner but you can also stop for some hot drink and a snack.
